

I am writing to OPPOSE weakening of Indiana's law against telemarketing calls. The current restrictions do not in any way interfere with normal business relationships for existing accounts. It is merely an attempt to create a loophole to circumvent the intent of the law.